Pre-Conference: Join us on May 6, 2025, to hear from our project team and distinguished project collaborators from Ghana and Laos, as well as from our collaborators and invited guests, including: Stefania Barca (online) from the University of Santiago de Compostela; Markus Kröger from the University of Helsinki; Maria Backhouse from Augsburg University; Toni Haastrup from the University of Manchester; and Constance McDermott from the University of Oxford. In the afternoon we will have a Science-Policy Interface event, moderated by Irmeli Mustalahti from the University of Eastern Finland.

Conference: Join us on May 7, 2025, to hear 4 wonderful keynote speakers and over 20 papers presenters from a wide range of disciplines and geographies. Our keynotes are Danielle Celermajer and David Schlosberg, both from the Sydney Environment Institute, and Christopher Raymond and Hanna Guttorm, both from the University of Helsinki. All will share their latest insights concerning the socioecological and multispecies justice, more-than-human lenses in nature-based planning, and Sámi perspective on multispecies reciprocity and care. Read more about our conference keynotes here and the paper presenters here.

Looking forward to seeing you and please feel welcome to share this invitation with your colleagues and networks for whom the topics of socioecological justice, extractivism, decoloniality, power relations, care work, and transformations resonate.
